

2012 Mill Creek Reach Napa Valley Chardonnay

Formerly known as SHV Chardonnay, our MCR is once again our light, bright crowd-pleaser. We changed the name to better describe the land where the vines grow, a broad stretch of rocky clay soil rising up from Mill Creek toward the northeasterly part of our property. Pale straw in color, it's got a slightly tropical bouquet with hints of peach and pineapple on the tongue. It is exceedingly dry with a zingy mouth feel and a fresh, tart finish. We suggest you cellar it for six months for maximum reward.
