

2012
Napa Valley Semillon de Soleil

This 2012 Semillon vintage from a remarkable growing season is rich and powerful, in other words, a knockout wine! We harvested the grapes late, on October 2, and let them dry in the sun for two weeks before crushing. That concentrated the sugar to 37 Brix, resulting in 12% residual sugar and 13% alcohol in the bottled wine. With a beautiful golden hue, distinctive honeysuckle character on the nose, and caramel and honey flavors in the mouth, the wine's sweetness is perfectly balanced with crisp acidity. Yes, pairing it with an apricot soufflé with crème anglaise would be divine, but to simplify, do as the Italians do, simply pour a glass of Semillon and complement it with the most perfectly ripe peach in the world.
